

ST. JOSEPH MEDICAL CENTER

Sue Lake

Morrison Vice President of Operations for UMMS System

As a VPO, Sue has operational responsibility for a 50 million dollar budget managing Food Nutrition Services. Sue brings 27 years of operational expertise in healthcare and a clinical dietetics background. She has extensive experience with patient satisfaction initiatives, fiscal responsibility, kitchen design and renovation projects as well. Her experience also includes national programming in Wellness. Sue received a Bachelor of Science degree in Dietetics from Indiana University of PA.

Marvin Denson

Regional Director of Operations

Marvin's career in food and nutrition spans over 27 years. He has worked in various positions including catering and production manager, director of food and nutrition services, and most recently, regional director of dining operations. He specializes in dietary management, diversity leadership, quality assurance, and client relationship building. Marvin holds a B.S. in Hotel, Restaurant, and Institutional Management from Indiana University of PA and a MBA in Business Management from Strayer University. In his free time, he is an executive coach, board member for a non-profit, and avid writer. Marvin and his wife Michele look forward to celebrating 25 years of marriage in 2021.

Brian Kelley

Director of Food and Nutritional Services

For over 30 years, Brian has worked in restaurants, healthcare, and contract foodservice. A 1987 graduate of Baltimore's Culinary Arts Institute, he's worked as food service director for several hospitals located in the northeast. Most recently, Brian served as district manager, responsible for the operational oversight of 17 communities in 5 states and 15 million dollars—total managed volume. He's been married for 25 years, and values spending time with his 4 children and 7 grandchildren.

ST. JOSEPH MEDICAL CENTER

Susie Woodward Retail Manager

A 15-year veteran in the hospitality industry, Susie brings a wealth of knowledge, experience, and expertise to Morrison Healthcare. Having worked as Assistant General Manager and General Manager for some of the most well-known hotel chains, Susie is eager to join the team as retail manager at SJMC. In her free time, she enjoys playing new and unique games found at thrift stores and hobby shops, and loves spending time at the beach with her friends and family. Susie holds a Bachelor's degree in Hospitality Management from Baltimore International College.

Thomas Casey Executive Chef

With an intensive culinary management career in hotels, restaurants, and country clubs, Thomas is excited to explore this new path with Morrison Healthcare. He holds a Culinary Arts degree from Johnson & Wales University and is a member of the American Culinary Federation where he is pursuing his executive chef certification. Chef Thomas believes in enhancing people's lives with his passion for food. When he's not at work, he enjoys being physically active with his family, cooking, traveling and working on home DIY projects. He and his wife Dominique have two sons, TJ and Nicholas.

Jean Montefiore Patient Services Manager

With over 35 years of experience in the contract foodservice industry, Jean holds an invaluable wealth of knowledge in catering, retail, and food service management. She started her healthcare foodservice career in 1986 and hasn't looked back since. As Patient Services Manager, Jean specializes in relationship-building with nurses and staff to enhance the patient's experience and produce optimal satisfaction scores. Jean holds a B.S. degree in Institutional Food Service Management from Radford University and a certification in Dietary Management, CFPP, from the University of North Dakota. Jean and her husband enjoy traveling and raking for clams in the bay with their friends.

ST. JOSEPH MEDICAL CENTER

Katie Davis Certified Nutrition Manager

Katie graduated from the University of Akron with a Bachelor's of Science degree and completed the Coordinated Program of Dietetics. In 2011, she became a Registered Dietitian and worked as a travel dietitian for 1 year before working at St. Joseph Medical Center in 2012. Katie is a Certified Nutrition Support clinician and specializes in critical care. Her work in the MSICU and implementation of a volume-based feeding protocol at St. Joseph Medical Center will be published this year in Critical Care Nursing journal. Katie loves to travel and before the pandemic, tried to go to Mexico every 3 months for a getaway! She has a 20 pound cat named Steve, likes to stay active, and played Division 1 soccer in college.

Alexandra Jacobs Clinical Dietitian

Alexandra (Lexie) Jacobs completed her Dietetic Internship with North Carolina's Meredith College in Raleigh, North Carolina. She was able to coordinate her rotations in the Baltimore area, closer to home in Maryland. Previously she graduated from McDaniel College with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Exercise Science specializing in Sports Coaching. She has also completed graduate courses in Nutrition & Dietetics at Immaculata University. Lexie has previously worked for Women, Infants and Children (WIC) in York, PA. She is currently studying to become a Certified Lactation Consultant (CLC) and is striving to become specialized in pediatric nutrition. Lexie is an avid swimmer and reader. She has been swimming since she started walking it seems, and has competed throughout college, and continues to compete today as a Master Swimmer. She enjoys cooking, experimenting with new recipes, and eating (of course, she's a dietitian!), and will eat just about anything except grapefruit. She is thrilled to part of the dietetic team at St Joseph Medical Center!

ST. JOSEPH MEDICAL CENTER

Samantha Gealoris Clinical Dietitian/Diabetes Educator

Samantha is a Registered Dietitian, Certified Diabetes Educator and a National Diabetes Prevention Program Lifestyle Coach who specializes in heart health, weight loss counseling, diabetes prevention and diabetes management. She received her undergraduate degree from James Madison University and went on to Virginia Tech for her Dietetic Internship. She is a member of the American Association of Diabetes Educators as well as the National Lipid Association. Samantha joined UMSJMC in 2014 and works in both inpatient and outpatient areas. Samantha loves to spend time with her Goldendoodle, Oliver, and enjoys traveling the world with her husband.

Tamara Mougeotte Clinical Dietitian

Tamara attended Penn State University and obtained her B.S. in Human Development and Family Studies, then went onto obtain her Masters in Nutrition and Dietetics in the coordinated master's program at the University of Pittsburgh. Her first job as an RD out of college was at UMSJMC, where she's been working ever since. Tamara has been married for a little over 2 years and recently purchased a house. She and her husband are foodies, love to cook and try new places/cuisines to eat. The best place she's traveled to was Hawaii for her honeymoon.