

UMMC Midtown

Sue Lake

Morrison Vice President of Operations for UMMS System

As a VPO, Sue has operational responsibility for a 50 million dollar budget managing Food Nutrition Services. Sue brings 27 years of operational expertise in healthcare and a clinical dietetics background. She has extensive experience with patient satisfaction initiatives, fiscal responsibility, kitchen design and renovation projects as well. Her experience also includes national programming in Wellness. Sue received a Bachelor of Science degree in Dietetics from Indiana University of PA.

Marvin Denson

Regional Director of Operations

Marvin's career in food and nutrition spans over 27 years. He has worked in various positions including catering and production manager, director of food and nutrition services, and most recently, regional director of dining operations. He specializes in dietary management, diversity leadership, quality assurance, and client relationship building. Marvin holds a B.S. in Hotel, Restaurant, and Institutional Management from Indiana University of PA and a MBA in Business Management from Strayer University. In his free time, he is an executive coach, board member for a non-profit, and avid writer. Marvin and his wife Michele look forward to celebrating 25 years of marriage in 2021.

UMMC Midtown

Fran Parker
Food & Nutritional Services Director

Fran graduated from Towson University with a Bachelor of Science degree. She has spent over twenty-five years in various foodservice management positions in healthcare. She developed her foodservice passion early-on when her first job was passing trays to patients in high school and has continued to be an advocate for the patient experience ever since. She is a member of the Association of Foodservice Professionals. Fran enjoys sports especially baseball (GO O's!) and basketball. In her free time she volunteers in her community's food pantry. The beach is her happy place. She is married and has three children.

Yolanda Jackson
Patient Services Manager II

Yolanda, a retired Correctional Administrative Dietary Lieutenant, worked in the division of corrections for 22 years. In 1989, she attended the Culinary Arts Institute where she fell in love with the art of Garmache, and in 2012 graduated from the Community College of Baltimore with an Associate's degree in dietetic technician. In her free time, she likes to put together puzzles, bike riding, and watching figure skating. She also has a passion for working with young children.

UMMC Midtown

Connie Johnson
Assistant Patient Services Manager

After graduating from Western High School and attending Howard University in Washington, Connie Johnson moved to New York City and worked as an executive for an affiliate of Bad Boy Records. Returning to Baltimore, she worked for years with Little Italy's Ciao Bella. Connie decided to leave her job as a chef after realizing she wanted to spend more time with her family. A mother of six, Connie tragically lost her eldest daughter to an asthma attack during dinner, a profound loss that would push her to continue to pursue her love of cooking. She participated as an Executive Chef at Super Bowl LIV. Her culinary program, dedicated to serving inner-city youth, was recognized by the Obama administration. Connie has been married for 20 years, enjoys her cockatiel named Chef, and loves water sports. She is enjoying her retirement as a chef, but loves to keep her eyes on the quality of food for patients and retail at UMMC.

Eric Sligh
Retail/Patient Supervisor

Eric has worked in fine dining for a number of years. He's served as a corporate trainer for Hard Rock Café and Oceanaire Restaurant. He is ServSafe certified. In his spare time, he enjoys playing basketball, lifting weights, and eating his favorite food— pizza.